V AGENCY SPORT CONSULTING

Why V Agency?

Club-focused mentality

We have extensive experience managing professional clubs and have developed effective solutions for their pain points. We have learned how to find the most effective solutions for them.

Unique know-how

Our team members have diverse backgrounds, providing us with unique and efficient solutions to every problem.

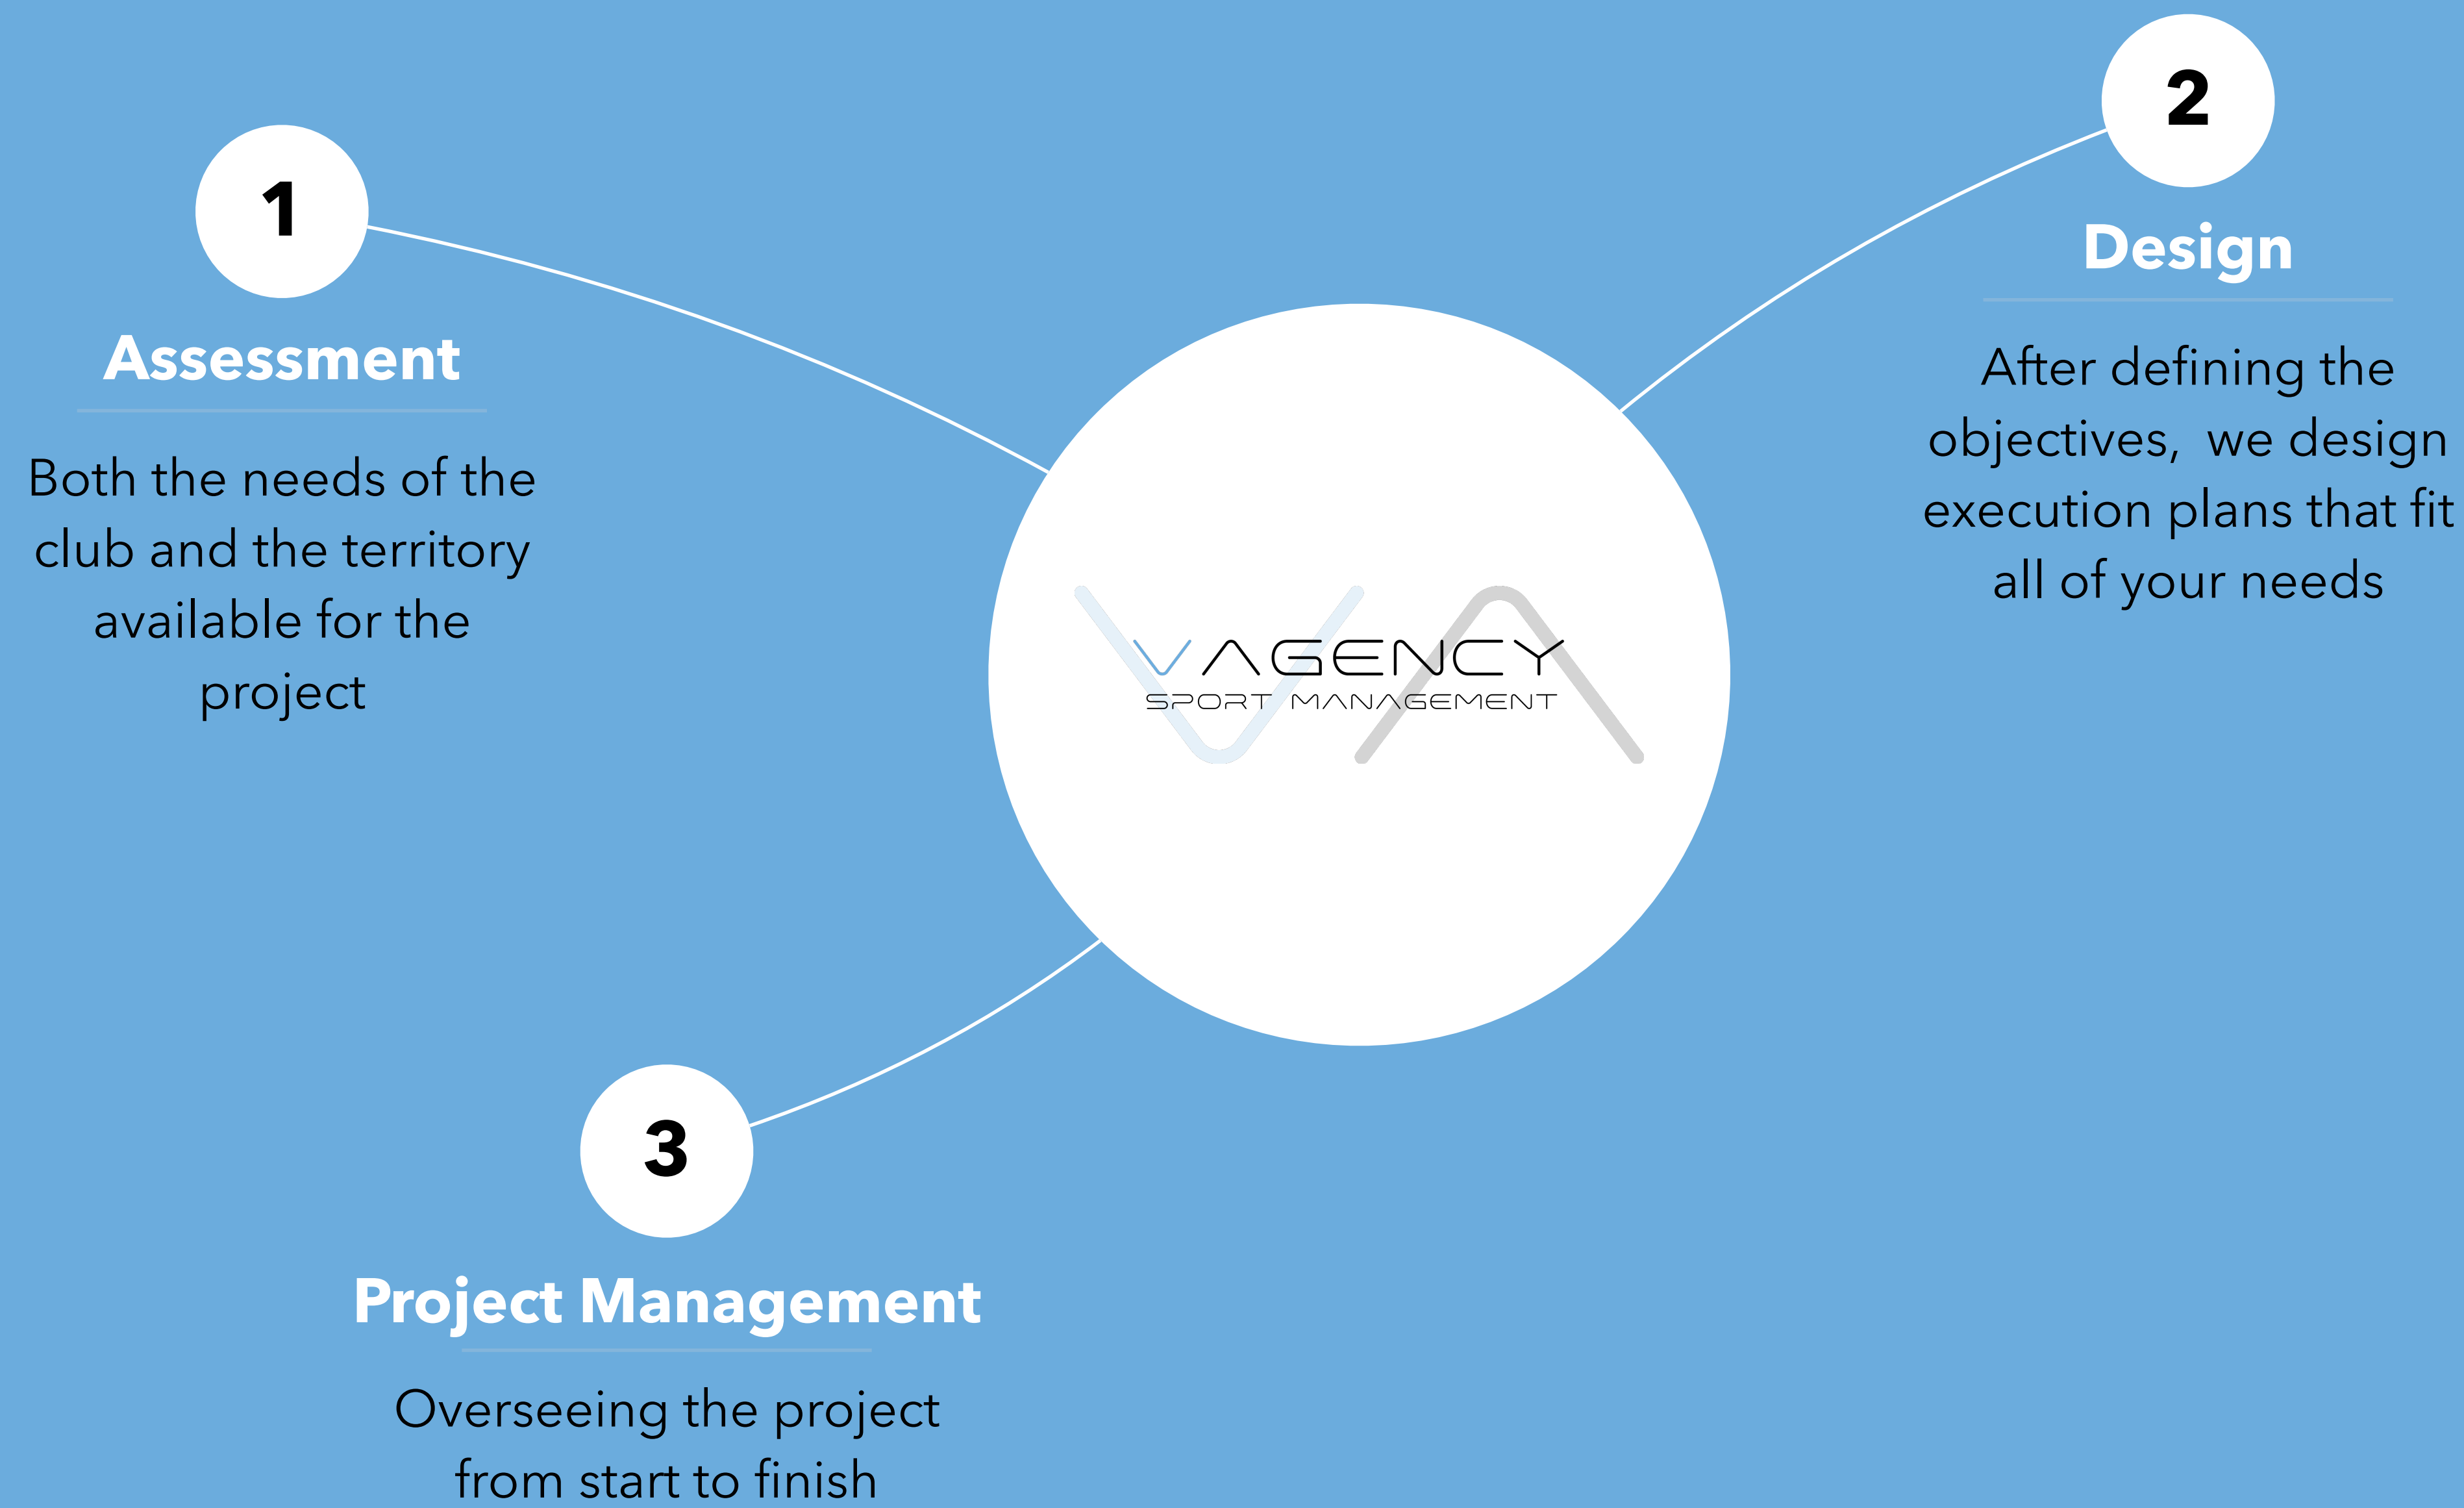

Professional experience

Our founders, as the second generation of a sports family, have closely observed how sports clubs operate and all the related areas to maintain sports establishments.

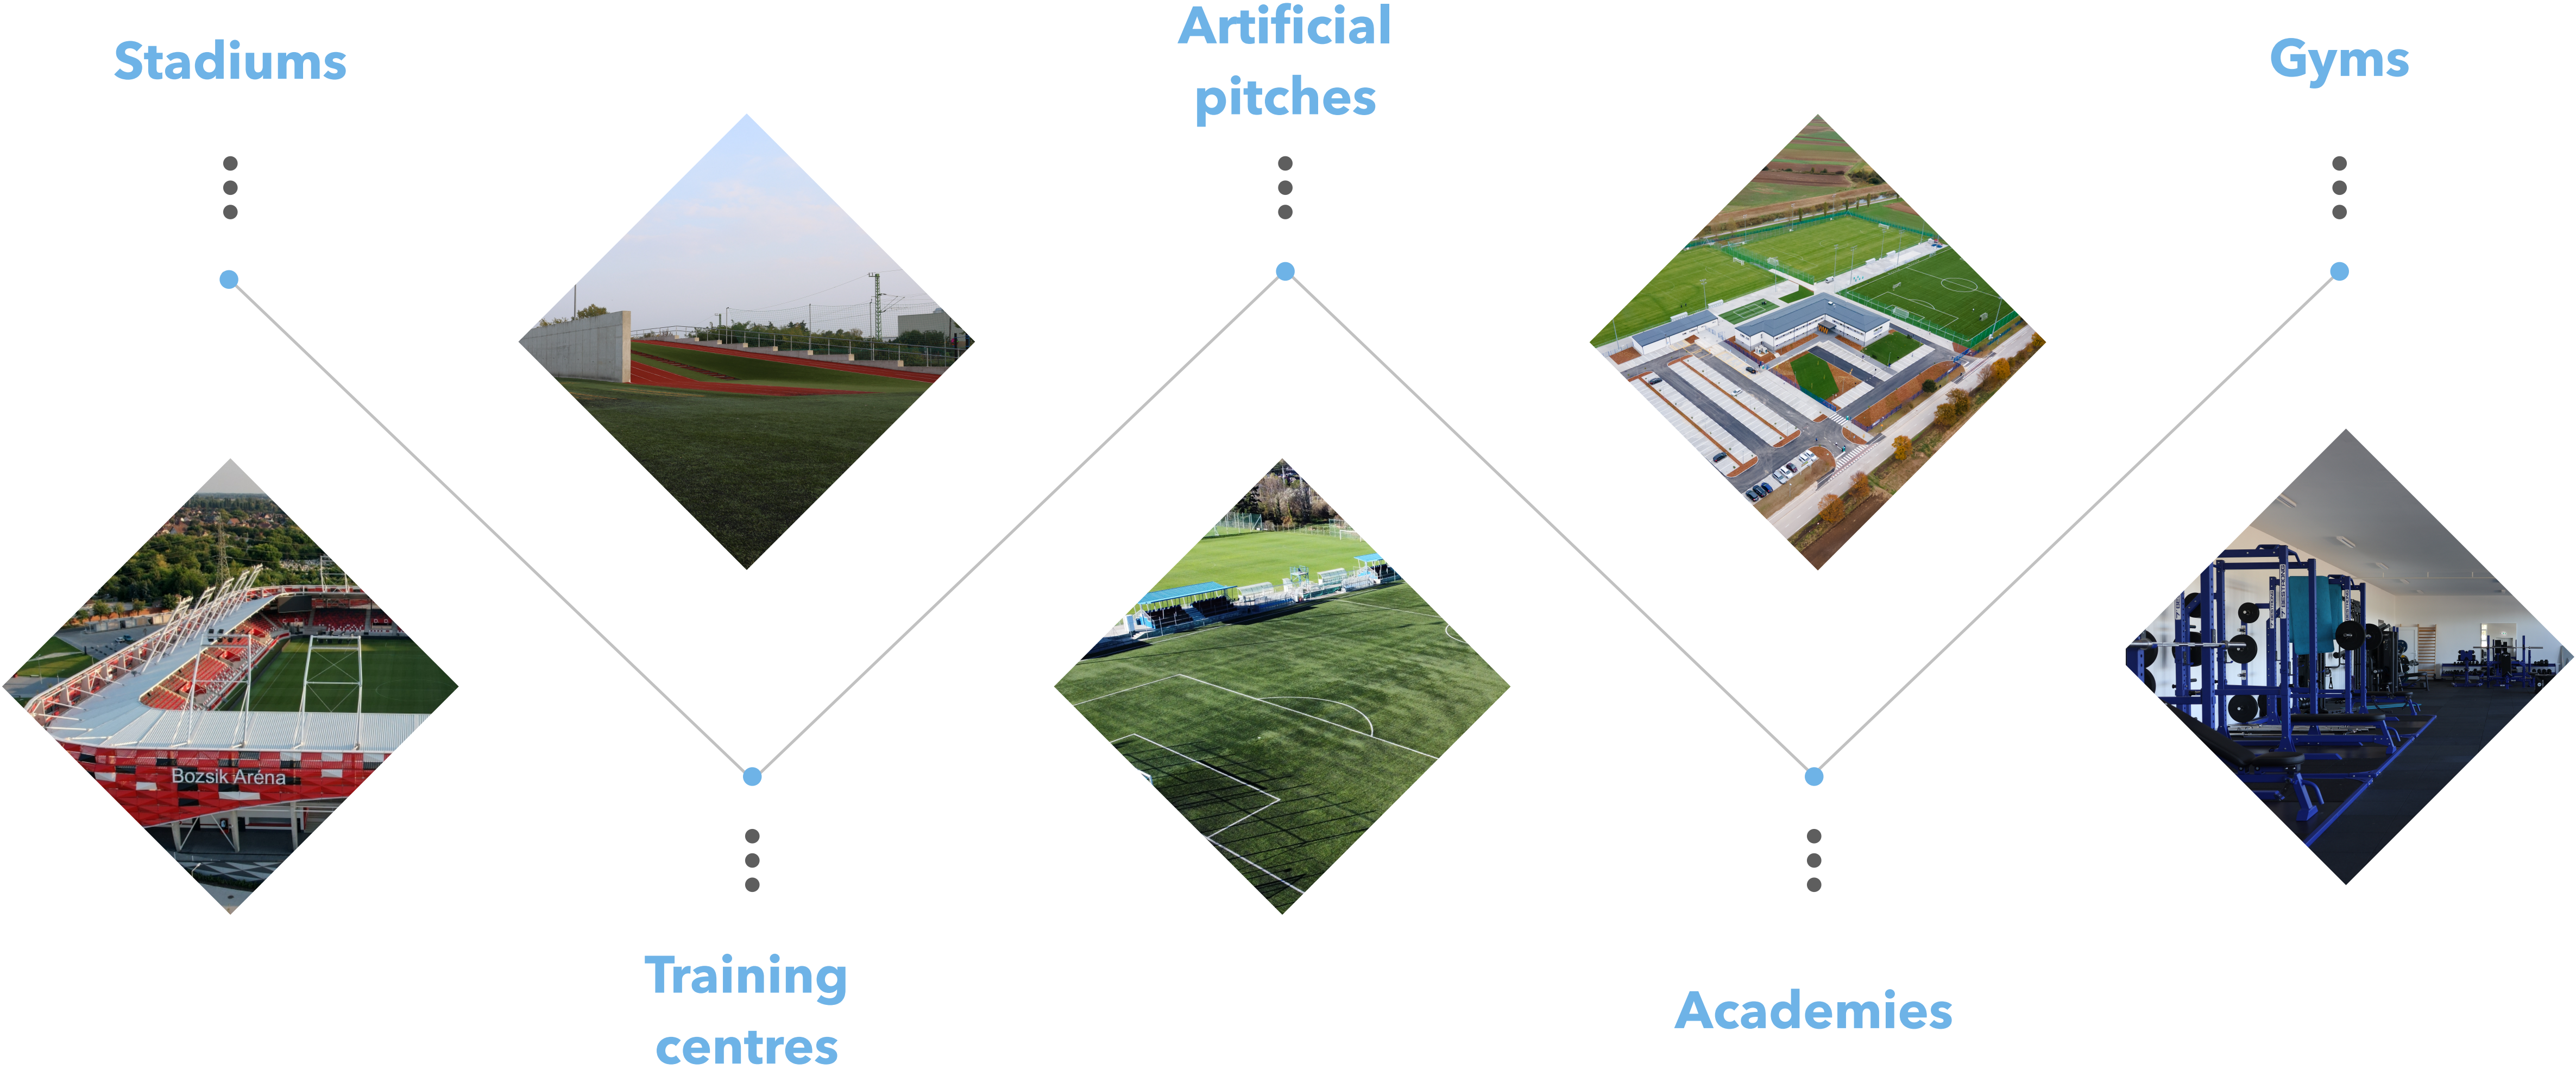

Industry-wide network

During our years in the sports industry, we have built a vast network of professionals, including club managers, sports lawyers, agents, and association staff members.
